REQUESTING PROCEDURE (SECTION 51(1)(e); SECTION 53(1)-(2))

The Practice's manual is available for inspection at the registered address of the firm, or this manual can also be accessed on the website.

In terms of the Act, all requests must be completed on the prescribed form, "Form C", annexed hereto. This form, together with a request fee, must be submitted by the requester to the head of the body. All requests for access to information and documentation should be addressed to the head of the private body at his/her address or electronic mail address, as mentioned above.

The requester must:

- Provide sufficient details on the form to enable the head of the Practice to identify the requester and the record/s requested,
- Indicate clearly which form of access is required,
- Specify an email address of the requester in the Republic,
- Identify the right that the requester is seeking to exercise or protect and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right,
- State the manner in which, if in addition to a written reply, the requester wishes to be informed of the decision on the request in any other manner. The necessary particulars for this must be provided,
- Submit proof of the capacity in which the request is made, in the case of a request being made on behalf of a third person. The proof of capacity must be to the reasonable satisfaction of the head of the body.

The head of the Practice must notify the requester by written notice, requiring the requester to pay the prescribed fee (if applicable) before the request is processed. All of the prescribed fees are set out in the Regulations of the Act. See Annexure "A".

The head of the body will then, in accordance with the provisions of the Act, make a decision whether to grant the request or not and notify the requester of the decision thereof.

Note that if you require access to records of your personal information, you do not have to pay a request fee.

REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO A REQUESTOR ON REFUSAL OF ACCESS

The Practice does not have any internal appeal procedures that may be followed after a request for access to information has been refused. The decision of the Head of the Body is final. If the requester is not satisfied with the outcome of his/ her request, the requester is entitled to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to take the matter further (See section 78 of PAIA).
